How a pipe of "Tux" does bubble over with good cheer and sunny comfort! There's something about the mellow taste of "Tux" that stirs a smoker's soul. It gets into his inside works, sweetens his disposition, and gives him that perky, chesty feeling, like a high-stepper trotting down the avenue.

Tuxedo

The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

Men who never smoked a pipe before are now smoking Tuxedo, because they have found that Tuxedo is the mildest tobacco made, and that it is the one tobacco that never irritates mouth, throat or nerves.

You simply cannot get another tobacco made by the "Tuxedo Process"—and that's the original of all processes for removing every trace of harshness and bite from the tobacco. It has been widely imitated, but never duplicated.

Try Tuxedo for a week, and you'll get acquainted with the sweetest, mildest, mellowest smoke in the world.

JUDGE DANIEL C. DEASY

Supreme Bench, San Francisco, Cal.

"I get a heap of pleasure out of Tuxedo, the sweetest, coolest, most delightful pipe tobacco I've ever smoked."

SALEM FANS SEE 22 SPEEDY ROUNDS OF BOXING AT SMOKER

Four Preliminaries and a Six Round Go by Middleweights Pulled Off

About 300 Salem boxing fans witnessed 22 lively rounds of fistic cuffs at Ryan's hall last night when the smoker was staged with Valley Trambutus and Tad Derbyshire as the principals in the main event. No decisions were given but Trambutus appeared to have the best of the six round encounter with Derbyshire. The Greek did not use his right until the middle of the fifth round and then he ripped the Canadian's jaw with a few solid jolts that would bring home the bacon in a longer bout. Derbyshire kept coming back for more but Trambutus was given a heavy shade by the ringside sports. Derbyshire weighed 161 and Trambutus 157.

The feature bout of the evening was the four round preliminary between Muff Bronson and "Silent" Rexter, two lightweights. Muff Bronson has had a long ring experience and is the cleverer man of the two but the Silent One kept boring in and this go was a fight from the tap of the gong. Silent Rexter is a dead mule but he certainly can talk with his hands in the prize ring language and Muff Bronson was a most surprised youngster when the fracas started. Bronson has a habit of going to the ropes and then taking the spring with the rope at his back to meet his opponent but he found the mite always coming in for a chance to land a vicious swing.

Referee Kelllogg gave Bronson a shove the better of the contest which was a popular decision in consideration of the superior cleverness of the visiting youth. "Shifty Teko" and Art Rodgers sparred for four rounds, that is, Teko did, but Rodgers was evidently bent on peace at any price and failed to take advantage of the huge openings left by Teko to land his opponent out. Teko is a solidly constructed lad and his cleverness with the mallet mits would enable him to show up to a good advantage with a tankier opponent than Rodgers. Brick Traglio and Harold McKinney, bantams, went four rounds at their best clip and though both were inexperienced they showed a willingness to do their level best which was appreciated.

The first bout on the program was between two paperweight champions of the Newsboys Union. Knockout Minton and Spidier Ryan pecked at each other noses for four rounds and in this bout was scored the only knockout of the evening. Minton smote Ryan on the point of the jaw and Spidier measured off about a yard and a half of canvas but was up and at it again in an instant. Referee Kelllogg elied the bout a draw.

Lojus Take Two Out of Three From W. O. W.'s

The Loju bowlers took two out of three games from the W. O. W.'s last night at the Club alleys. Kress of the Woodmen team averaged 293 and also rolled the high game of 225.

Salem High Clashes With Roseburg High School Here Tonight

The Roseburg high school basketball team invaded Salem today for a game with the Salem high school team in the high school gym tonight. The Roseburg lads come with plenty of fight and a string of victories as a record for this season. Salem likewise is an undefeated team and the contest tonight is to be a battle royal from the whistle. Roseburg is the champion of the southern Oregon district and Salem has trimmed all of the teams in the district. Both Salem and Roseburg have played Eugene and Roseburg won by the larger score.

Captain Proctor will be in the game tonight and for the first time this season will be able to play the entire game. Proctor has been on the hospital list and has not finished an entire game for some time. The remainder of the Salem line-up will be the same as usual. Both teams are free to predict a victory and it is not likely that the score will mount very high as both teams are strong on guarding.

Following the announcement that lands in the Hermiston county are now to be had at a less price than at any time in the past, says the Hermiston Herald, "favorable comment has been heard in many sections."

STROUD GETS COACH FOR CALIFORNIANS

His Identity Unknown—Baseball Magnates Would Raise Salaries to $5,000

Berkeley, Cal., Jan. 25.—California students were on the tiptoe of expectancy today following the announcement from Chicago that Graduate Athletic Manager John Stroud was on his way back home after having successfully completed his mission to procure a football coach for the blue and gold. No intimation of the identity of the coach has been given out but it is said Stroud has opened negotiations with three men. One of these will get the place. Stroud was very secretive regarding his trip and told Chicago newspapermen he would have to confer with the athletic authorities of the university before making any announcement.

Extra Games. San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 25.—"A foolish idea," was the way President Allen T. Baum of the Pacific coast league today characterized the report that some magnates favored adding 30 additional games to the schedule for the next season to provide Portland seven games a week during the fifteen weeks they are at home. "I don't think the directors will consider the plan," Baum said.

Buys Providence Club. Providence, R. I., Jan. 25.—William Draper of Boston, has purchased the Providence International league club from J. J. Lannin, owner of the Boston Red Sox, it was announced today.

Would Boost Salaries. Portland, Or., Jan. 25.—"Interlocking directorates," was the epithet Walter McCredie, manager of the Beavers, hurled southward today when he heard that baseball magnates Maier, Powers and Berry had agreed to boost the Pacific Coast league salary limit to $5,000. "I have suspected all along," declared McCredie, "that Henry Berry's sale of the Los Angeles club last year when he bought the Seals, was on the Christmas jewelry order. Now I know it."

Track Open Saturday. San Diego, Cal., Jan. 25.—The railroad lines and auto roads will be repaired so that the Tia Juana race track can be re-opened Saturday, it was announced today.

Joe Rivers Comes Back. Cincinnati, Ohio, Jan. 25.—The nearest approach to his old time best form since he began to go back was achieved by Joe Rivers in his ten round battle with Ritchie Mitchell here, according to the opinion of fight fans today. The newspapermen give the decision to the Mexican. Rivers staged a furious rally in the tenth during which he nearly sent Mitchell through the ropes.

Ritchie Is Hurt. San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 25.—Willie Ritchie, former lightweight champion, will be out of the ring for at least a month as the result of an injury, according to private information today. He fractured one of his ribs during training in New York for his coming bout with Ted Lewis.

Four Clubs in League. Seattle, Wash., Jan. 25.—But four clubs will make up the Northwestern league the coming season, if Bob Brown Vancouver magnate has his way. Brown brought forth his little hammer yesterday and, squaring off, took a slam at Tacoma. "Tacoma hasn't supported a ball club for so long it has forgotten how," said Brown. He also declared the "city of destiny" for the past several seasons had been a mill stone around the league's neck. Butte, Spokane, Seattle and Vancouver are the clubs Brown favors.

Dugdale, owner of the Seattle club is home from Butte and declares the Montana town will be represented the coming season in the Northwestern league.

A BUSY DAY. Monday, the first day of the sale, I was busy all day and was forced to let a number of people go out without showing them the pianos or prices—Tuesday I will have extra help. The sale will only last a few days. There were several who saved yesterday all the way from $150 to $265. Be sure and read our ad on page two of this paper and see yesterday's ad for prices.

STATE NEWS

Oregon Daily Tide.—The Orowood Paint company, of Portland, Oregon, is writing to the local chamber of commerce regarding the gathering of fir balsam in this district. Recently the company asked that an order for forty barrels of the balsam be filled here, but it was found to be impossible at that time to fill so large an order in the time which was allowed. H. Elliott, of the South Slough district, has taken up the matter, and is carrying on quite an industry in that section. The company states that it has an order pending which will require about twenty-five barrels to fill it, and it is expected that this can be filled locally.

Dufar Dispatch.—The present cold spell of weather is hard on the rabbits, or rather is causing lots of them to be killed, and scalps are coming in by the dozen to be entered in the contest being conducted under the auspices of the Dufar Rod and Gun club. When the contest was first started, it was thought that less than 100 jack rabbit scalps would be turned in, but that number has been passed and the contest has almost three weeks in which to run. And then several cotton tail scalps have also been secured. Since the snow fell the tracking of the rabbits is an easy matter.

Cool Bay Harbor.—It is reported that the tannery at Gardner is turning out some very fine leather. Mr. Smith, the tanneryman, has been engaged in the business for a number of years, having worked in this tannery for nearly 10 years. Leather men to whom the leather is shipped report that the leather stands as high as any leather on the coast.

The state of Oregon during the five years ending with 1915 has sent 1228 men to the penitentiary to pay the penalty for crimes ranging from murder in the first degree to simple larceny, and in the same period 1210 pardons, conditional pardons and paroles have been issued these men.

The regular meeting of the Parent-Teachers' association will be held at the high school auditorium, Friday evening, January 21. A short program of music has been arranged by the committee and some questions for discussion will be submitted. The reports of the various committees will be received at this time. It is very important that all who can, attend this meeting, as those in charge wish to effect a permanent organization.—Stayton Standard.

George A. Etzel, of the Fern Ridge country, was a visitor Tuesday. Mr. Etzel has been reappointed as road supervisor for his district. L. S. Lambert has also been reappointed for the coming year. A petition has been circulated in the Sublimity district for John Kintz and also one for Everett Downing to be appointed as supervisor, but as yet the court has made no appointment.—Stayton Standard.

R. B. Trenholm, who operates the store at Bruce, is very seriously ill at present and his condition is a matter of grave concern to his relatives and friends. Mr. Trenholm was stricken with paralysis a day or two before Christmas and has since been seriously ill. He is well known in Corvallis and Benton county.—Corvallis Gazette-Times.

O, yes, this is "exceptional" weather for Oregon. Ask most any old timer about it and the cheerful old liar will tell you they haven't had such weather for forty years. Eight years ago—in the winter of 1907-8—there was a blizzard to this state and landed at Silverton, in Marion county. That winter we had about twenty inches of snow, with a temperature down near zero, for about a week.—Corvallis Gazette-Times.

The Southern Pacific local, which leaves Corvallis at 6:45 a. m., was snow-bound Tuesday in a drift near Suter station, and the Portland and Astoria mail did not reach its destination until hours later. It is reported the snow drifts in that vicinity were ten feet deep in many places. That's a rather unheard-of thing in Oregon, but perhaps it's so.—Corvallis Gazette-Times.

Mrs. Dunsmore, wife of Rev. H. Cass Dunsmore, of Independence, died on January 12th, at Edinboro, Alberta, after a brief illness with pneumonia. Dr. Dunsmore was unable to attend the funeral which occurred on Saturday. Mrs. Dunsmore had resided in Canada the past two years, having gone there to care for an invalid sister, who passed away recently.—Polk County Itemizer.

The Cliff House, built in Oregon City in the late '40's and probably the oldest standing hotel in the state, is to be razed to make room for the $750,000 addition to the plant of the Hawley Pulp and Paper company. The Cliff House is inseparably interwoven with the history of the northwest. It was the meeting place of the pioneer river men, the scene of hundreds of early day balls and banquets and the gathering place of judges, lawyers, politicians and traders when the only federal court west of the Rockies was held there, and Oregon City was the capital of the territory.

Since 15 head of cattle in the Bly section have shown symptoms of rabies, extra precautions to prevent the spread of the malady have been taken in Klamath county. After a conference with State Veterinarian Lytle, the county health officer has ordered all dogs within a ten-mile radius of Bly muzzled or shot. He is also having notices posted there, warning stockmen to keep their stock closely guarded or corralled, to prevent their being attacked by rabid coyotes.

George Haff and Henry Ray are awaiting a let-up of the snow storm before they return to their development work at the Chisholm copper property in the upper Meadows. They are engaged in tracing out the true course of the ledge from the surface to save the time and expense of cross-cutting. The ore is rich in this mine, rich in nickel and copper, but in cobalt and nickel, with more than a trace of gold.

MONMOUTH NEWS

(Capital Journal Special Service.)

Monmouth, Jan. 24.—It was with much interest and pleasure that the club audience last Friday morning heard the address given by Mr. Chas. A. Rice, one head of the training department here, and now assistant superintendent of the Portland schools. Mr. Rice talked from his large experience on "Some qualifications of a good teacher." Some qualifications of a good teacher, and succeeded in bringing a splendid message to eager listeners. Mr. Rice stressed loyalty, cooperation and the ability to get along with superintendents, pupils and patrons. He further emphasized the purely human qualities which should predominate in the teacher. One particularly interesting statement Mr. Rice made was that "In the Portland schools sixty four Oregon Normal School graduates are doing successful work. Always a welcome guest of the school, Mr. Rice spent a part of the day visiting classes and inspecting the new training school.

Monmouth people are expecting a prosperous year during 1916. As many rooming and boarding houses are needed to take care of the incoming Normal students, several buildings will be erected as soon as the weather will permit. Farmers in this vicinity are elated over the condition of their crops. The recent cold snap did very little damage to the grain in this section as the ground was covered with snow several inches deep, which kept the grain from freezing. Monmouth people will no doubt be able to get through town in their "ears" next year without getting mixed in the mud because Main street will be paved by that time. If the townspeople will only give the newly elected council a little support, the "dream" for a better and a bigger Monmouth will soon come true. Orchardists in this section were about the only losers from the recent snow storms. Rabbits did considerable damage to young prune and apple orchards as they girdled many of the trees, especially in the foothills. One orchardist reports a loss of 150 trees. The Monmouth high school basketball team met the first team of the Capital city Business College in a match game here Saturday evening. The visitors were outclassed by the home boys as the score was 38 to 21 in favor of the high school.

The Monmouth Boy Scouts basketball team went to Dallas Saturday and played the Dallas Scouts there, but were defeated 33 to 12. The old saying that Dallas cannot be beaten on their own floor has proved too true; but nevertheless the Monmouth boys have sworn vengeance on Dallas as a return game will be played here soon. Frank F. Lefever was in Monmouth from Cooper hollow Saturday and he reported the snowfall there about the same as here, (about 12 inches) but on Monmouth heights the snow was about two feet deep.

A few young people met at the Runner home for a social evening, spending the time in taffy pulling and other similar amusements. The Cozy Corner Sewing club met last Friday evening at the home of Mrs. White. Friday afternoon a debate was held at the school on the question of whether the state should furnish the schools books or not. After some weighty arguments and flights of oratory the judges decided that the state would have to dig up. Mr. George Anderson and wife made a visit last week with their parents here. The pastor Rev. Plummer announced last Sunday that the next preaching day would be in three weeks. Mr. Caplinger has been reappointed as road supervisor of the Fruitland district very much to the satisfaction of the people here. Last Sunday evening under the leadership of Jacob Gerig the Y. P. A. gave its usual good program. A special song by Mrs. Silkey and Mrs. George Klein were appreciated also a talk by Mr. Withen on "Demonstrative Religion" was unusually good. Those thinking that Fruitland is a dead place in comparison with other neighborhoods are either heretics or hypochondriacs as shown by many visitors from other places coming to enjoy the different social gatherings here.

Following the announcement that lands in the Hermiston county are now to be had at a less price than at any time in the past, says the Hermiston Herald, "favorable comment has been heard in many sections."

Mrs. Viola O'Connell and Mr. Stanley Evans represented the Sunday school of the Evangelical church here in the convention held in Dallas last Saturday. Mr. L. V. Macken, owner of the "Norm theatre" here, is contemplating the erection of a new modern fireproof theatre building with a seating capacity of 500 people. The building he now uses will hold only about 300 people which is much too small to accommodate his patrons. Mr. John H. Moran is reported much better this week and will no doubt be out soon.

FRUITLAND NEWS

(Capital Journal Special Service.)

Mrs. Withern came out to the farm last Saturday returning Monday morning to Salem. A crowd of young folks gathered at the Schraeder place for a coasting party last Tuesday evening, all present reported a jolly time. On Wednesday evening several affairs took place, there being the meeting of the trustees of the church at Mr. Donaldson's home, the musical society at the home of Mr. Fleigel and a party at the home of Mrs. Anna Girod. Rosa Otterheim visited with her friend Dorothy Runner at Salem Thursday and Friday. A crowd of about thirty people were entertained by the Williams' family at cards last Friday evening. Another card party took place at the home of Mr. Paris last Friday evening.
